

Company: May Institute
Randolph, MA 02368

Position: Vice President - Professional Research and Training

Responsibilities:

- Function as the Director of Clinical Training for the Institute's APA-accredited doctoral internship program in psychology
- Oversee the postdoctoral training program in psychology
- Facilitate university affiliations and agreements for practicum training and externships in psychology, social work and allied health fields
- Supervise trainees participating in the doctoral and postdoctoral training programs
- Generate and manage continuing education accreditations, programming and on-line capacity for the organization
- Conduct clinical research with the potential for grant funding
- Participate in organization-wide peer-review, clinical steering and other clinical projects including electronic data management

Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in clinical psychology
- Minimum of 5 years postdoctoral work
- MA licensure
- Previous experience as faculty in an APA-approved psychology internship training program
- Experience in supervising and managing clinical staff and programs
- Board certification in psychology or behavior analysis preferred

PLEASE APPLY AT <https://careers-mayinstitute.icims.com/jobs/>